You can be better prepared for the unexpected

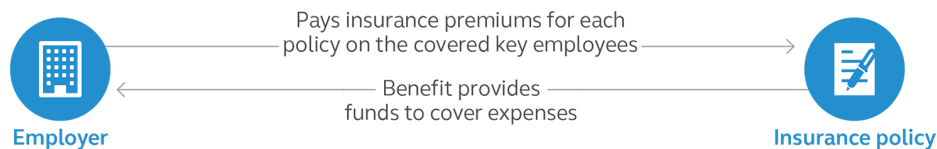

Oftentimes, the most valuable assets of any business are the key people who contribute most to its success.

Key employee contributions can be difficult to measure, and may be more robust than you might think. It's likely that the time it takes to find a replacement, if something happens to them, would create a financial challenge that could put the business at risk.

One way to address this risk is Key Person Replacement disability insurance. It's designed to provide the funds necessary to help the business recover financially if you or your top talent is too sick or hurt to work, and can be a critical component to your business protection strategy. It can also provide liquidity for business succession funding or pay for key employee benefit programs.

How it works

Your business is the owner and beneficiary of Key Person Replacement disability insurance. If the unexpected does happen, the business receives funds, generally income tax-free¹, to help overcome the financial challenge of the loss.

Determine the right amount of coverage

Each business is different, so it's important to carefully assess your situation and different protection options. To help you get started:

- 1 | Review the customized scenarios on the next pages to see how much coverage may be appropriate for your situation.
- 2 | Learn about how much the coverage for each scenario costs.
- 3 | Assess the advantages and considerations of this coverage.

¹ Based on current federal income tax laws, if insurance premiums are paid with after-tax dollars, then benefits are received income tax-free.

Key Person Replacement coverage type

Base-level	(1 times salary up to $300,000)	Provides proposed coverage based on a projected base-level multiple of salary.
Moderate-level	(2 times salary up to $400,000)	Provides proposed coverage based on a projected moderate-level multiple of salary.
High-level	(3 times salary up to $500,000)	Provides proposed coverage based on a projected high-level multiple of salary.

Key person replacement insurance

By putting a protection strategy in place now — while everyone is healthy and working — you can minimize a stressful situation. Key Person Replacement disability insurance provides funds to your business if a key person becomes totally disabled. The business can use the benefits as they wish —to cover recruitment costs, pay for temporary staffing, replace revenue or to address other business needs. Benefits cannot be assigned.

Outlined below are the projected premium amounts for the three coverage scenarios shown on the previous page.

Key person disability insurance coverage for:

Employee income protection — To help recruit and retain your key employees, consider offering individual Disability Income (DI) insurance from Principal. It provides monthly benefits to replace a portion of their income if they become too sick or hurt to work.

Properly funding your business protection plan

Advantages

Immediate funds - Insurance benefits can be used to replace lost revenue and cover expenses to recruit, hire, and train a replacement.

Cost efficiency - Policies can provide attractive benefit amounts relative to premiums paid.

Convenient options to complete the application - You may be able to complete your application either online or by telephone interview to get your key person protection put in place quickly and efficiently.

Considerations

What's right for you - There are several insurance funding and design options. Carefully decide what's best for your business.

Disability Income insurance potential - The business policies do not limit personal income protection available from Principal to your key employees.

Disability Buy-Out – Funds the purchase of a totally disabled owner's interest in the business under a buy-sell agreement. This coverage complements Key Person Replacement insurance and helps the remaining owner(s) or key employee(s) continue to run the business.

Next steps

- 1 | Identify people who are key to your business.
- 2 | Determine the amount of coverage you need for each of them.
- 3 | Discuss your plans with each key person.
- 4 | Request official illustrations, apply for coverage, and begin underwriting.
- 5 | Once approved, begin the on-boarding process and set-up administration services.
