Standard Insurance Company (Standard) is committed to maintaining the confidentiality of your personal information. In order to offer and administer insurance products, Standard must obtain and review a certain amount and type of personal information about you. In general, we may seek information about your age, occupation, health and medical history, personal characteristics and activities, avocations, income and finances. This personal information is obtained and disclosed by us in order to evaluate your insurability, determine appropriate premium rates, support our normal business practices and provide quality service in administering policies.

SOURCES OF INFORMATION: You and your application for insurance are our primary sources of personal information. We, or our representative, may call you for a personal history interview (PHI) to obtain supplementary information or to confirm information you provide on the application. With your written authorization, we may also collect or verify personal information by contacting physicians, medical professionals, health care providers, hospitals, clinics, pharmacies and other medical or medically-related facilities; consumer reporting agencies, insurance sales representatives, insurance support organizations, insurance or reinsurance companies, and the MIB, LLC (see below); employers, and personal and business associates. We may also request that you have medical examinations and tests.

DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION: In the course of conducting our business, there are circumstances in which we may disclose to others the information we collect about you. These disclosures are only made with your authorization or as permitted or required by law. Such disclosures may be to the MIB, LLC, reinsurers, organizations or persons, including insurance sales representatives, that perform services or functions on your or our behalf, and to regulatory, law enforcement or governmental authorities. We or our reinsurers may also release information to other insurance companies to whom you have applied or may apply for life or health insurance or to whom a claim for benefits may be submitted. When information is disclosed to another party to perform services or functions on our behalf, we expect them to adhere to procedures and practices that maintain the confidentiality of your personal information, to use the information only for the limited purpose for which it was shared and to abide by all applicable federal and state privacy laws.

REVIEW AND CORRECTION OF INFORMATION: In general, you have a right to learn the nature and substance of any personal information about you in our files. You also have a right to obtain a copy of that information, subject to limited restrictions. To access information about you, send a signed, written request to us at the address at the bottom of this page. If you believe that any information about you is inaccurate, you may notify us in writing of any correction, amendment or deletion that you believe should be made. We will carefully review your request and, where appropriate, make the necessary change.

INVESTIGATIVE CONSUMER REPORTS: We may ask that an investigative consumer report be prepared by an independent source called a consumer reporting agency. The report is for insurance purposes only. It may include information about your character, general reputation, personal characteristics and activities and mode of living. The consumer reporting agency may obtain information for the report through personal interviews with your family members, friends, neighbors or others with whom you are acquainted. If we request a report and you wish to be interviewed, please let us know in writing and we will notify the consumer reporting agency. On written request, we will disclose to you whether or not such a report was done and provide a more detailed description of the nature and scope of the report. You have a right to receive a copy of the investigative consumer report from the consumer reporting agency. If you would like a copy of the report, please contact us and we will give you the name and address of the consumer reporting agency.

MIB, LLC: We, or our reinsurers, may make a brief report to the MIB, LLC. MIB, LLC is a not-for-profit membership organization of insurance companies that operates an information exchange on behalf of its members.
