

At Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company (“MassMutual”), we recognize that our relationships with you are based on integrity and trust. As part of that trust relationship, we want you to understand that in order to provide our products and services to you, we must collect, use and share personal information about you. This Privacy Notice describes policies and practices about how we protect, collect and share personal information related to the products and services you receive from us, including life insurance, disability income insurance, long-term care insurance, and individual annuities. It also describes how you can limit some of that sharing.

Privacy Notice

We protect your personal information by:

- Using security measures that include physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to protect your personal information from unauthorized access or use in accordance with state and federal requirements.
- Training employees to safeguard personal information and restricting access to personal information to those employees who need it to perform their job functions.
- Contractually requiring business partners with whom we share your personal information to safeguard it and use it exclusively for the purpose for which it was shared.

Personal information we may collect. The types of personal information we may collect depend on the type of product or service you have with us and may include:

- Information that you provide to us on applications or forms, during conversations with us or our representatives, or when you visit our website (for example, your name, address, Social Security number, date of birth, income, and assets, beneficiaries, and medical or health information).
- Information about your transactions with us and our affiliates, including your policy coverages, premiums, and payment history.
- Information from third parties such as consumer or other reporting agencies and medical or health care providers.

We may share all of the personal information we collect, as described above, with:

- Agents, brokers and others who provide our products and services to you;
- Our affiliated companies, such as insurance or investment companies, insurance agencies or broker-dealers that market our products and services to you;
- Companies that perform marketing or administrative services for us;
- Nonaffiliated companies in order to perform standard business functions on our behalf including those related to processing transactions you request or authorize, or maintaining your policy or contract;
- Courts and government agencies in response to court orders or legal investigations;

- Credit bureaus; and
- Other financial institutions with whom we may jointly market products, if permitted in your state.

In addition, we may share certain of your personal information with your MassMutual financial professional, if he or she is a career agent of ours who terminates their relationship with us to join another financial institution (whom we call a “departing MassMutual financial professional”) so that he or she can continue to work with you at his or her new company.

Please note that any personal information consisting of medical or health information is only shared with third parties to perform business, professional or insurance functions on our behalf or as authorized by you.

Important privacy choices. MassMutual respects your privacy choices. If you have a relationship with a departing MassMutual financial professional, as described above, and you prefer that we do not share your personal information, such as information about your insurance policies or contracts held with us, with him or her under these circumstances, you can opt out of this sharing by directing us not to do so. If you wish to opt out of the sharing of your personal information with your departing MassMutual financial professional, you may:

- Call us at (800) 272-2216.

You may make this privacy choice and contact us at any time, however, if we do not hear from you we may share your information with your departing MassMutual financial professional as described above. If this is a joint account, if one joint owner tells us not to share information that choice will apply to the other owner or owners. If you have already told us your choice, there is no need to do so again.

If you have not purchased a product or service through a MassMutual financial professional or you do not have a relationship with a MassMutual financial professional, as described above, you do not need to contact us as we will not share your personal information other than as described in this notice.

Other than as described above, we will only share your personal information as permitted by law and, if the law requires us to obtain your consent or give you the opportunity to opt out of some types of sharing, we will do so before sharing the information.

Disclosures continued

Certain state laws may provide residents with additional protections for personal information. If you are a resident of one of the following states, we will not share your personal information with your departing MassMutual financial professional unless we receive your express consent:

Arizona	Massachusetts	North Carolina
California	Minnesota	North Dakota
Connecticut	Montana	Ohio
Georgia	Nevada	Oregon
Illinois	New Jersey	Vermont
Maine	New Mexico	Virginia

If you are no longer our customer, we may continue to share your personal information as described in this Privacy Notice.

If you have any questions or concerns about this Privacy Notice, please contact us at (800) 272-2216.

Consumer Notification

This notice is to inform you that a consumer report or an investigative consumer report may be obtained from a consumer reporting agency for the purpose of evaluating your insurance application. The report may contain information bearing on your credit worthiness, credit standing, credit capacity, character, general reputation, personal characteristics or mode of living, which has been obtained from public record sources or through interviews with you, your family, neighbors, friends or associates. You have a right to receive a copy of the investigative consumer report from the consumer reporting agency that conducts the investigation.

Medical Information Bureau Notice

Information regarding your insurability will be treated as confidential. We or our reinsurers may, however, make a brief report thereon to the MIB Inc., formerly known as Medical Information Bureau, a not-for-profit membership organization of insurance companies, which operates an information exchange on behalf of its members. If you apply to another MIB member company for life or health insurance coverage, or a claim for benefits is submitted to such a company, MIB, upon request, will supply such company with the information in its file.

Upon receipt of a request from you, MIB will arrange disclosure of any information it may have in your file. Please contact MIB at 866-692-6901 if you question the accuracy of information in MIB's file. You may contact MIB and seek a correction in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Fair Credit Reporting Act. The address of MIB's information office is 50 Braintree Hill Park, Suite 400, Braintree, Massachusetts 02184-8734.

We, or our reinsurers, may also release information in our file to other insurance companies to whom you may apply for life or health insurance, or to whom a claim for benefits may be submitted. Information for consumers about MIB may be obtained on its website at www.mib.com.

The purpose of the bureau is to protect its member companies and their policyholders from the costs created by people who try to hide facts about their insurability. Information furnished by the bureau cannot be used as a basis for evaluating risks. However, it may be used to alert us to the possible need for further investigation. THE BUREAU DOES NOT HAVE MEDICAL REPORTS FROM HOSPITALS AND DOCTORS. THE INFORMATION IN ITS FILES DOES NOT SHOW WHETHER AN INSURANCE APPLICATION WAS ACCEPTED, PLACED IN AN INCREASED PREMIUM CLASS OR DECLINED. (This notice is only valid where permitted by law.)

Our Purpose

Part of our basic Company purpose is to provide insurance at the lowest possible cost. The underwriting process is necessary both to assure this low cost and to make sure that each policyholder contributes his or her fair share of the cost. The procedures described above benefit you as a policyholder, because they assist us in providing your insurance at the lowest possible cost.

This Privacy Notice is being provided on behalf of the following insurance companies: Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company (MassMutual), C.M. Life Insurance Company and MML Bay State Life Insurance Company.
